

EXHIBIT 62

Margaret S. Zenk
88-2436 MAMALAHOA HWY
CARRAN COOK, HI 96704

Hon. KATHLEEN B. FOREST
DAVID L. PATRICK MOYNIHAN LIMITED STATES COURT HOUSE COURTROOM 23B
500 Pearl St.
New York, NY
10007-1312

Dear Honorable Justice Forest, My name is Margaret ("marge") Zerk and I am writing with regard to Christopher ("Chris") Zerk who is scheduled to have his sentencing hearing with you on May 15 I met Chris when he applied for a position with my company, Matty Consultants, in late 2005. I was very impressed with him and hired him as an assistant manager. He worked with me for five plus years.

During that time I found him to be a more than adequate assistant manager for an automotive client that we were doing digital marketing.
-PAGE 1 of 3-

He was always on time for meeting, was well prepared and had well thought out proposals and solutions to problems that needed to be solved.

On a personal level, Chris and I bonded over the elderly grandmother in his family and the more elderly great grandmother in family. Chris's elderly grandmother came into his life via Ryan, his girlfriend (late wife). He Nana's guy for all of the ongoing maintenance issues with her home. Chris would come into the office and talk excitedly about how much he enjoyed helping her by fixing all of the little things around her house. He also really enjoyed listening to her stories and talking about life. He was very proud of his ability to fix things around the house. He took time from his evenings and weekends to make her life less lonely and more fun. She truly enjoyed each other and were best friends for the rest of her life. Since then we both lost our dear elderly grandmothers and still feel the loss.

Chris has a wife and three high energy young boys that he adores and who adore him. It is his desire/need to care for them financially as being a supportive husband and father. He spends time with the boys, burning off their energy with sports, help with homework and

- page 2 of 3 -

Keep them away well as brother

I know that Club has paid guilty to a very serious crime which has ended his professional career that in itself is a punishment for a ~~man~~ man like him who takes his reputation as a footballer and paid very much the mistake has already helped and most likely taken away his ability to care for his family financially for the rest of his life. He must be with some the ability to be a constant positive presence in the lives of his around to support his wife emotionally for a man like him, this is a huge blow to his recept of his self worth. Please take into consideration the three young boys who need their father as well as the punishment already imposed on him by the guilty plea which avoiding the prison sentence you give him

Thank you for taking the time to read my thoughts about him

Best regards
Mase

- Page 3 of 3 -